KILL OFF RATS!

The plague is primarily a disease of the rat. The Citizens' Health Committee's warning of danger from plague epidemic emphasizes the imperative necessity of destroying rats.

What is the best way? By using Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste, the most reliable poison, and one that drives the rats out of the house to die. It is recommended by the health authorities, and is bought and used by the U. S. Government in its fight against the dreaded plague.

Get a box of Stearns' Electric Paste today and help in the fight to free our city from the dangerous rats.

2 oz. box 25c; 16 oz. box $1.00. Sold by Druggists and General Stores everywhere or sent direct prepaid on receipt of price. STEARNS' ELECTRIC PASTE CO., Buffalo, N. Y., U. S. A.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT PAUOA MEETING

Straight Ticket And Good Roads Are Talked

A good crowd of loyal Republicans and some who were not turned out last evening to hear the candidates at work at Pauoa. Straight-ticket talk and promises of good roads and economy were the order of the evening, which passed off without any sensations, in spite of lots of enthusiasm.

The speeches were short, for the most part, a wise plan, as the number of speakers precluded the possibility of any windy discourses being popular. Eli Crawford did some fine work as interpreter, and his memory was one of the marvels of the occasion. The crowd yelled every time any reference was made to repairing or improving of roads in the precinct, but the crowd was notably indifferent on almost all other topics, at least to the extent of remaining silent.

Kauli acted as master of ceremonies, covering himself with glory, and eliciting applause on the first words he uttered. He introduced first J. K. Kamanouli, candidate for Representative, who made his little lines short and very much to the point. He pledged equal rights for all if he were sent to the House. Jim Quinn was introduced next, and made a hit with his very specific outlining of what the new Supervisors, if elected, would do for the roads of the district and for those of the County, mentioning macadam with great frequency, to the delight of his hearers.

William Kane of Ewa gave a little straight-ticket talk, and pledged himself, if elected as a Supervisor, to try for efficiency and economy in the administration of County affairs.

E. Henriques touched on the necessity of having business men to handle the business of the Government in a businesslike way, and recalled the fact that he is both a business man and a kamaaina.

Danny Logan had a big compliment to pay to the attention which he finds the audiences paying to the talks of the candidates all over the island, an attention which he says denotes the intelligent thinking being done over politics. He paid a compliment also to Kuliho, and said that he thought the fact people were thinking augured well for the Republicans.

A number of other speakers followed throughout the evening.

Joe Cohen made a hit by mentioning each of his colleagues as candidates for the House in person, and naming their qualities and qualifications which should make them the choice of the people.

John Hughes declared that the Republican party has the correct solution of the land problem. Norman Watkins had a soft spot in his heart for the Pauoa roads, which he did not wish to see duplicated in the roads themselves.

The speakers of the evening were: John Kamanouli, Jim Quinn, Wm. Kane, E. Henriques, Dan Logan, Joe Cohen, Ed. Quinn, Norman Watkins, Wm. Aylett, H. M. von Holt, John Wise, John Lane, John Hughes, A. D. Castro, Robert Shingle, and E. A. Douthitt.

A quintet played and sang during the entire time, and made a hit with the crowd—almost as much of a hit as the talk of good roads and "macadam."

DANCE AT SEASIDE HOTEL THIS EVE

A dance in honor of the Pacific Fleet will be given at the Honolulu Seaside Hotel, this evening. A special dinner will be served in the open lanai from six thirty until eight. Music for both dinner and dancing will be furnished by the Kauli Glee Club. A cordial invitation to all is extended.

THE OLIVER RECITALS.

Miss Katharine Oliver gave her version of J. M. Barrie's "Little Minister" at the Kilohana Art League last evening before an appreciative audience. It is no easy task to portray the various characters in a book of this kind, to change the voice from light to heavy; from joy to sorrow, from the trembling voice of old age to the robust tone of youth; but this is what Miss Oliver accomplished most successfully last night. Many members of the League were present and many other literary people of the city. Miss Oliver was heartily applauded at the conclusion of her recital. Owing to the sailing of the Manchuria on the 20th the remaining recitals will be given on successive evenings in the same order as planned. "Confessions of a Literary Pilgrim" will be given this evening and "Dr. Luke of the Labrador" on Thursday evening. Friday evening, on account of the Gypsy Encampment, no recital will be given. On Saturday evening "Henry the Eighth" is the selection.

Robert Griffin is sentenced to one year in penitentiary for bigamy.
